

Sample Three-Day Itinerary

Explore the Limits of Land, Sky and Sea

From your Kissimmee home base, you are in the perfect position to explore the limits of the Earth and space. Travel around the world in a few hours, rocket into the cosmos and dive deep into the oceans during an adventure-filled, three-day getaway.

DAY ONE

Full Day

Epcot at Walt Disney World Resort– Epcot is a one-of-a-kind theme park that has guests soaring through air and space, exploring the globe on terra firma and discovering the undersea world. This two-parks-in-one has something for everyone, including fabulous restaurants serving cuisine from around the world and a spectacular fireworks show for a perfect end to the night.

DAY TWO

All day

Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex – See how they really do it in the space program at the KSC visitor complex, where you'll marvel at the Space Shuttle Atlantis exhibit and other displays that tell the tale of space exploration. Plus meet an astronaut! The complex is a short and easy drive from any Kissimmee accommodation.

Evening

Capone's Dinner and Show – Flashy period costumes, action, adventure and musical comedy are on the menu at this fun-filled show set in prohibition-era Chicago. Enter this speakeasy and be prepared to interact and laugh at the antics going on all around the room. The dinner attraction also introduced a sequel to the 20-year-old show, featuring some of the fan favorites and some new characters to enjoy.

DAY THREE

Full Day

SeaWorld Orlando – You won't get any closer to the creatures of the deep than at SeaWorld, where amazing animals interact with their trainers in a host of unique shows featuring dolphins and majestic whales. You'll also find the thrills you've come to expect of a Central Florida vacation on the park's "flying coaster" Manta, which takes riders to a height of 140 feet and a maximum drop of just more than 110 feet, reaching a speed of 56 mph, all with passengers in a face down position. And explore Antarctica section, featuring an incredible view of penguins.

Evening

Makahiki Luau at SeaWorld Orlando – Take your family to the Pacific Isles and dine in a tropical paradise. Feast from a menu of delectable delights served family style while enjoying an electrifying evening of island entertainment that includes fire dances.
