It Pays to Meet in Kissimmee

RULES & REGULATIONS

Additional Program Details:

1. No substitutions for incentives will be allowed. The It Pays to Meet in Kissimmee incentive cannot be combined with another Experience Kissimmee incentive program.
2. Experience Kissimmee must be notified in writing when the meeting is contracted, confirming dates, anticipated total room pick-up, and anticipated total attendees; a copy of the contract should accompany this notification.
3. Upon completion of the specified meeting, the meeting property must verify in writing to Experience Kissimmee the total paid room pick-up associated with the specified meeting and additionally verify that the meeting(s) were held in Kissimmee/Osceola County.
4. If attendees stay at more than one meeting property, the meeting planner must notify Experience Kissimmee in advance and the property/properties must agree to report the room nights booked for the qualified meeting (one vacation home equals 1.75 room nights).
5. Any deviation from the required notifications and reporting will negate the meeting organization's right to receive the specified incentive.
6. In order to receive the incentive payment, an invoice and W-9 must be submitted within 45 days of the conclusion of the meeting. Documentation received beyond 45 days could result in forfeiture of the incentive payment.
7. Upon receipt of the room night validation, Experience Kissimmee will then process payment for the incentive earned in the form of a check to the company, association, or organization that held the meeting.
8. For organizations outside of the United States, incentive payments must be processed through the hotel Master account where the meeting organization contracted and actualized room nights.
9. Experience Kissimmee Staff will have final determination as to any questions regarding qualification and the incentive amount to be awarded; All meetings booked prior to the change or discontinuation date will be fulfilled per the incentives schedule which is part of these rules. For questions regarding the incentive program, please contact us at 407-569-4800 or email meet@experiencekissimmee.com.
10. The incentive promotion can be changed or discontinued at any time without prior notice.
